AMERICANS ON-THAMES.

Telegrams Up to the Hour of Going to Press.

THE HENLY RACES.

HENLEY-ON-THAMES, July 2.—(Copyrighted, 1896, by Asso. Press.)—The near approach of the days set apart for the Royal Henley regatta, July 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th, is increasing and already a very great interest is manifested in the gallant young Americans, who are to uphold the glorious traditions of Yale on the Thames.

Since their appearance here up to the present time they have steadily improved in form. On all sides the New Haven oarsmen are classed as thorough gentlemen and sportsmen of the first water. The utmost good feeling prevails on all sides in which the cup of good fellowship is overflowing, and when the rival crews measure oars on Tuesday next it will be in a healthy, honest, rivalry, with no tinge of bitterness on either side.

A change for the better in many respects was made in the Yale bow today. The English oars have been tried and found that they are not adapted to the Yale crew. As a result they have been discarded and American oars will carry the sons of Eli to victory.

There is no cock-sureness about the crew nor their friends, but they will row their best, are in the pink of condition and will, at least, come very near capturing the Grand.

This is about the situation of affairs from the American standpoint, although Bob Cook appears to look gloomy, shakes his head somewhat despondently and intimates that he is not satisfied with the work of his pupils. But Bob Cook has been known to do the same thing many times before and then have his crew walk away from his opponents. In fact, the throwing of cold water upon the chances of Yale, is, in some quarters, looked upon as being an old trick of the master coach, so no importance is attached to his cloudy forebodings.

CONSTITUTION SAILS.

LIMA, July 2.—The Constitution has sailed for Para, via the Straits of Magellan. The vessel carried the last contingent of the expedition instituted for the suppression of the rebellion in Loreto. Two Hotchkiss guns and a detachment of artillery were put on board here. The ship will touch at Mollendi, where 300 men of the Junini battalion will embark. Other detachments will be added to the expedition at Santa Rosa and Pacasmayo.

The government has received reports of many desertions from the force already sent against Seminario. Reports have been received also of a serious uprising of Indians in the central provinces where several parties of colonists are threatened.

REVOLUTIONISTS RECEIVE ASSISTANCE

BUENOS AYERS, July 2.—A correspondent in Para, Brazil, telegraphs that Seminario has succeeded in settling the differences among his followers, and that he is fortifying Iquitos with a view of resisting Piorota's troops to the utmost.

The Peruvian revolutionists now have three steamers armed with rapid-fire guns. They have received a great deal of assistance from various business firms on the Amazon.

The revolutionists, it is stated, have already declared a free right in the province of Loreto, and have made overtures to the great Brazilian states. The governors of these states made no reply, but it is known that the sympathies of Brazilians are in a large measure with Seminario.

TURKISH TROOPS.

CAMBO, July 2.—Two Turkish battalions at Yeddah, who received no pay since 1894, refused to leave for Crete and have barricaded themselves in the mosque.

It is stated on high authority that the khedive intends leaving for Europe within ten days on his private yacht, touching first at Corfu and Philadelphia.

Shooting at a Seducer.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 2.—During the progress of Lillian Ashley's suit against E. J. Baldwin for $75,000 for seduction this morning, Emma Ashley, sister of Lillian, tried to shoot the millionaire defendant. She fired at Baldwin but the bullet missed.

Emma Ashley is believed insane. During the trial she has spent her time in the court reading the Bible. When taken to the jail she sang "Nearer My God to Thee," in a loud voice. Baldwin's hair was singed by the powder, and the bullet passed within an inch of his head. His escape is ascribed to the woman's inexperience with fire arms. The bullet was found in the wall, fifteen feet from Judge Slack's chair.

CHICAGO CONVENTION

Silver Men Will Have Control of It.

ALTGELD AND BLACKBURN

Talk About Candidates and Convention Policy.

ALTGELD TALKS.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 2.—Governor Altgeld returned from Chicago today. He expects to return to Chicago Sunday and remain until after the convention.

"Free silver men will have control of the convention," he said, "and it is, we think, to our best interests to wind up the business of the convention in one day. The single gold standard men will, of course, fight for delay."

Altgeld further said: "He had no idea who would be temporary or permanent chairman, but both positions would be filled by men acceptable to free silver Democrats." Regarding the presidential nominee, he said: "He had no preferences. It was too soon yet to fix upon a man. The chief object now was to see to it that the majority were not interfered with by Wall street gold."

THE GOLD INFLUENCE.

CHICAGO, July 2.—Some silver men manifest a disposition to resent the announcement of the intention of gold advocates like Whitney and Eckels, who are not delegates, to come to Chicago with the avowed intention of influencing the proceedings. They say either one of two constructions is to be put upon their conduct, they either propose to buy men outright or they want to otherwise influence delegates to break faith with their constituents.

BLACKBURN TALKS.

Senator Blackburn said today he is not in favor of hurrying the convention, but that every man and every movement should have a fair and impartial hearing. He further said no one but a silver man would wield the gavel. Blackburn was naturally coy about saying anything regarding presidential candidates or chances, as his own constituency was booming him this morning. "I have heard," he said "that Governor Altgeld has decided to assist Bland, but it is a little early yet to talk of chances."

THE USUAL COURSE.

CHICAGO, July 2.—The executive committee of the national Democratic committee have decided to recommend to the full committee that they proceed in the usual way to designate a temporary chairman for the national convention.

EXPECTS THE NOMINATION.

CHICAGO, July 2.—The Times-Herald's Philadelphia special says, Wharton Barker, a Philadelphia banker, and Republican, free-trader and free-silverite, expects to be nominated for the presidency by the Democratic convention at Chicago. [The above is an error. Mr. Barker is a protectionist.]

OPINIONS.

CHICAGO, July 2.—Speaking of abrogation of the two-thirds rule, Dr. Mullinix, of Oregon, says: "Governor Altgeld hit the nail squarely on the head when he said that the two-thirds rule was un-Democratic. I am heartily in favor of its abrogation." John Welsh of Oregon: "I am heartily in favor of the abrogation of the rule."

SPARRING FOR CONTROL.

It is not yet determined whether the executive committee will assume the responsibility of naming a man for the place. That matter is still under consideration. The decision has been arrived at, not in defiance of the request of silver men, but because it is in accordance with precedent. There is no doubt if the full national committee accept the recommendation it will precipitate a lively skirmish on the floor of the convention at the threshold of its proceedings. If a gold man is selected, a silver minority of the national committee will bring in a report recommending a silver man and the first contest will be between the gold and silver forces, and fought it out there and then. It has been intimated that in case affairs reach this stage, Chairman Harry will refuse to order a general roll call, and will arbitrarily seat the gold candidates. The silver men refuse to believe that he would pursue such a course.

Aurora's Grand Celebration.

The Patriotic citizens of Aurora are making great preparations for the grand celebration which will be held at that place on Saturday, July 4th, and no trouble or expense will be spared to make it a grand success.

They have engaged several of the best of stars in the state, among them are Hon. J. H. McNary, of Salem, Prof. H. T. Grimith, of Portland, Prof. H. C. Tripp, the Poet Laureate, of Iowa.

They have also secured the services of a celebrated comic comedian, of San Francisco, who will entertain the crowd during the intermission between the speeches.

In the evening there will be a Grand ball in Pioneer hall.

The music will be furnished by the famous Ehlens orchestra. Everybody wanted to attend and have a good time.

About Mill Creek.

The governor, secretary of state and treasurer, comprising the board having in charge the straightening and cleaning out of Mill creek from the reform school to the penitentiary, met Wednesday, and, it is understood, an agreement was made whereby the contract will be let to Archie Mason, of Salem. The contract is to provide that the state shall furnish 50 convicts, and that the contractor shall receive approximately 10 cents per cubic yard for the excavation. The appropriation for this work was $500. Mason's limit will be less than $600.

Fourth of July Dinner.

The ladies and young people of the Baptist church, who have a reputation for serving the best meal in Salem, will give one of their excellent dinners in the store room formerly occupied by M. Beamer, 244 Commercial street, next door to Brown & Smith's hardware store and opposite Steiner's drug store. The principal feature will be lots of home made chicken pie as well as meats of other varieties. An elegant dinner for 25 cents. d&w

BASE BALL.—The "Leveques," who were beaten in a match game of base ball with a picked nine, Tuesday afternoon, have issued a challenge, asking that a return game be played this afternoon. Since several members of the picked team are not in the city, the game cannot be played today. However, several of the members of the picked nine have signified their willingness to play a return game next Wednesday or Thursday. This will probably prove satisfactory to both teams, and the game will be unusually interesting.

RETURNED TO JEFFERSON.—J. W. Jones, father of County Superintendent-elect Geo. W. Jones, was taken to his home at Jefferson this morning.

Mr. Jones was received at the Salem hospital the first of the week but since his condition is quite critical, it was thought best to take him home. Mr. Jones' ailment is thought to be cancer of the stomach, and it is feared he may not survive this dread ailment very long.

THE BODY OF BELVA HOGUE, the 8-year-old boy who drowned two weeks ago was found to-day a mile below Barnhart's station in the Umatilla.

$100 Reward $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred dollars for any case that fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. LEGISLATIVE SEATS CONTESTED.

Mitchell Men Want a Recount of the Ballots.

Through their attorneys, Hume & Hall, the defeated Mitchell Republican candidates for the legislature have filed notice of contest of election of their regular Republican opponents. The contestants are A. H. Tanner, W. M. Killingsworth and J. J. Fisher for the three seats in the state senate to which the returns show that George W. Bates, Donald Mackay and Ben Selling were elected, and T. A. Marquam, Van B. DeLashmutt, Charles Cleveland, G. B. Tucker and Emmett Drake for the first five seats in the house of representatives, to which J. C. Bayer, James N. Davis, George H. Hill, A. L. Maxwell and D. L. Povey were elected.

It is claimed by the contestants that a large number of ballots were cast for them, but were not counted by the judges on account of the faulty manner of marking; some voters making a cross on the right-hand side instead of the left, some striking out the names of candidates they did not wish to vote for and some using a lead pencil instead of an indelible one. It is also claimed that the official returns do not give the true result, and that ballots cast for the Mitchell-men were counted for the regular candidates.

A CUTTING SCRAPE.

F. J. Beatty and W. B. McCormack, of Chemawa,

ENGAGE IN A KNIFE BOUT.

McCormack Is Taken to the Salem Hospital.

An assault with dangerous weapons took place Wednesday evening near Chemawa, in which F. J. Beatty stabbed and cut one W. B. McCormack.

It took place near the home of Wm. Edwards, where McCormack was working. In a wordy altercation the men came to blows, and Beatty received some cuts and blows about the head, while McCormack received a slashing cut across the abdomen and several stabs necessitating his removal to the Salem hospital.

BEATTY AT SALEM.

Mr. Beatty came to Salem with his wife this morning and appeared in Justice Johnson's court in response to a warrant. Deputy Lon Waln started to go to Chemawa this morning, but met Mr. Beatty coming to town to swear out a warrant against McCormack.

Deputy District Attorney A. O. Condit read the complaint sworn to by W. B. McCormack charging assault with a dangerous weapon. Beatty was in charge of Sheriff Knight.

Mr. Beatty replied that he had not had time to consult his lawyer. "The boot is on the other leg. He assaulted me and I want a warrant for his arrest," said Beatty.

"We will see about that latter on," said his honor, justice. "In the meantime I will put you under a $1,000 bond, to appear here at 1 o'clock."

Beatty and the sheriff went out to look after securing bondsmen.

F. J. Beatty is about 45 years old, of medium size, but very quick. He is a prominent Populist and member of the county central committee, is quite unpopular at Salem on account of his continually scolding the politicians in the newspapers. As a political character Beatty is known far and wide. He declined to talk in any detail to reporters until he had seen his attorney and was was to have a preliminary hearing at 1 p. m. today, remaining in the meantime in the custody of the sheriff.

MR. BEATTY'S STORY

F. J. Beatty says at about 6 o'clock he went to the Edwards' place, tenants on Mr. Bush's farm, better known as the old Gilbert place. "I went to see McCormack about finishing a well he had started to dig to pay for a cow I let him have about three months ago. It was my wife's cow, and he was to pay for it in work. The Edwards were present, all eating supper, and after supper we talked about it. Out of this talk we had an altercation.

"He assaulted me with a baseball bat. In the fight I was struck over the left hip with the club, once over the back of the head and once across the right temple. He was the assailant, a big stout man, much heavier than I am, and I defended myself as best I could. He would have killed me but for my having a 50 cent pocket knife with which I cut him."

BEATTY'S INJURIES

are apparent. The left temple is swelled, cut, black and blue and has four stitches in it.

The cut in the top of his head is held by several strips of the scalp. McCormack got in some great licks on Beatty and he had his wounds dressed by Dr. Johnson of the Indian school. No one else participated in the fight to hear Beatty tell it. He got away as fast as he could and went home.
